

Book Club Meeting Agenda

Thursday, June 11, 2020
Leader Shift - By John C Maxwell

Where: Via Conference Call-
Conference Call Line: 1-605-313-5647
Participant Code: 896060#

Time: 7:00 - 8:00 pm

Short Discussion: Simon Sinek's "Start with Why"

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=u4ZoJKF_VuA

Chapter 8: Directing to Connecting

- 1- Make the Leadershift to Connecting (begins on page 152): The author listed seven things that he found to be most important to a leader who wants to connect with others. Which do you find challenging? The seven things are listed on page 2.
1. General Question: Favorite quote in this chapter?

Chapter 9: Team Uniformity to Team Diversity

1. How to Leadershift to Diversity and Inclusion (begins on page 188): The author offered three suggestions of how to create a supporting environment that is diverse and inclusive for Baby Boomers, Gen Xer, and Millennials. What did you think of this section? (Suggestions on page 2.)
2. General Question: What information in this chapter did you find surprising?
3. General Question: Favorite quote in this chapter?

Notes

IAWP California Chapter Book Club contact information:
caworkforcebc@gmail.com

Book Club Meeting Agenda

Chapter 8

Seven things most important to a leader who wants to connect with others (pages 152-165):

- 1- Humility – Let people know you need them
- 2- Curiosity – Ask people questions
- 3- Effort- Go out of your way to connect with people
- 4- Trustworthiness – Be someone others can count on
- 5- Generosity – Give first, give continually.
- 6- Listening – Open the best door to connecting with people.
- 7- Encouragement – Give people oxygen for their soul.

Chapter 9

Three suggestions for creating a diverse and inclusive environment for Baby Boomers, Gen Xers and Millennials (Pages 189-190)

- 1- Create a culture of sharing.
- 2- Broaden your perspective on diversity.
- 3- Provide solid leadership for diversity to be effective.