Appreciate Your Husband Day By: James Thomas

Husband Appreciation Day is celebrated on the third Saturday in April. The celebration for one's husband was created so that childless husbands could also have a day in their honor. Husbands should be showered with love and given thanks for the wonderful things they have done. Husbands should be celebrated for helping with chores, cooking, loving partner, best friend and childcare if children are present. Give love and show thanks on this special day.
