Watermelon Sunshine
By: James Thomas

On a sizzling summer day there is nothing like a large slice of watermelon. On August 3 you can now celebrate National Watermelon Day. Did you know there are over 300 varieties of watermelon available in the U.S? Cultivation of the watermelon dates to 2000 B.C, and the first watermelon harvest was recorded approximately 5,000 years ago in Egypt. We now can celebrate and enjoy the summer watermelon pleasure.
